

Jerrold Vincent is a co-founder at Nuclearn Inc, and is responsible for research, development, testing and deployment of the “CAP Screening Automation” and “Automated Trendcoding” modules, as well as general operations.

With 10 years of experience in Utility and Nuclear data analytics, Jerrold is known for his ability to bring innovative data & AI solutions to fruition, and build strong, collaborative teams. He previously was a member of Palo Verde’s data science team, and his contributions helped them earn the NEI “Best of the Best” Top Innovative Practice award in 2020 for “Process Automation Using Machine Learning”.

Jerrold holds a M.S. Computer Science from Johns Hopkins university, and a B.A. Business Economics from the University of California Irvine. He currently resides in Phoenix, Arizona.