

Maite Hormigo, Telecommunications Engineer and Scrum Master, has been working in the utility sector for 13 years, and the last 9 years for Naturgy group, always related to innovation projects for different businesses. Since 4 years ago, she is part of UFD, the DSO of Naturgy group, specifically in the Distribution System Innovation area, and managing projects related to digitalization, advanced monitorization, and data analytics on power networks.