

With Bachelor's degree from Tallinn University and Master's degree from Vienna University, Marianne's professional expertise lies in project & event management and business development. She has gathered professional experience from Estonia (Foreign Ministry), Austria (OECD and United Nations), China & South-Korea (Delegation of the European Union in Beijing) and Belgium (Eurelectric). Currently Marianne works in the energy sector, strategising business opportunities and expansion, and managing stakeholder relations at European electricity industry association Eurelectric in Brussels.